

10 GREAT EVENTS FOR MARCH

1 PROJECT GENERATION NEXT

Looking for Cairns' hottest new hairdresser? This competition will select apprentice hairdressers to compete in front of public and peers. Running over four months, with the first round in March, this comp is a creative platform for apprentices to demonstrate their skills and create what would not likely be seen in the commercial environment. Entrants will be graded on quality and innovation.

Monday, March 2
Sapphire Bar, Lake Street
$20 adults, $15 for apprentices and student
4041 4130

3 FEAST OF THE SENSES

The annual Feast of the Senses, in the cassowary coast region including Innisfail, Mission Beach and Tully, showcases the unique produce, flora, fauna and people of the tropics. A range of events will occur over 10 days culminating in the Market Day Extravaganza on Sunday, March 29.

Friday, March 20 to Sunday, March 29
Various locations
4061 9923
www.feastofthesenses.com.au

2 WAY OUT WEST

Like their name suggests, Way Out West are a uniquely diverse musical outfit, harking just outside the jazz genre to include a host of other influences that enamour audiences wherever and whenever they perform. Inspired by the cultural vitality and diversity of Melbourne, Way Out West creates something miraculous, a truly new sound rather than a pastiche of something pre-existing. Their new album, Old Grooves for New Streets, has been receiving five-star reviews in Australia as well as some very favourite international attention.

Friday, April 3
6.30pm
Tank 5
Tickets from $25
4031 9555

TANKS ARTS CENTRE
46 Collins Avenue
Edge Hill
PO Box 359 Cairns Q. 4870
INFO: 4032 6600
www.tanksartscentre.com

BOOKINGS: 4031 9555 or www.ticketlink.com.au

music > arts > community > events > culture > in the tropics > think tanks

KATIE NOONAN
FRIDAY 6 MARCH
Jazz Up North 2009 Series

Multi-award winning and four times platinum selling songstress Katie Noonan is on the tour trail promoting her new album 'Blackbird' - the music of Lennon and McCartney. You can join Katie and her band as they bring 'Blackbird' to life in this very special first show in the Jazz Up North series.

• $40/$35 • Doors open 6.30pm/Show starts 7.30pm
• MA15+ • Tank 5

EMMA DONOVAN
SATURDAY 7 MARCH
Women In Song

In celebration of International Women's Day Tanks Arts Centre is proud to present Emma Donovan. Emma has established herself as one of Australia's finest Indigenous performers, seamlessly blending genres from country, gospel, soul and reggae and mixing in some traditional language, her sounds will touch your soul and lift your spirits.

• $25/$20 • Doors open 6.00 pm/Show starts 6.30pm
• Tank 5 • PG

ERIC BIBB
SATURDAY 14 MARCH
Blues/Soul

Join international troubadour Eric Bibb for an enriching experience, both musically and spiritually, purveying a beautifully realised and deftly accomplished soulful and gospel infused style of folk blues. He effortlessly melds a traditional roots/American style with contemporary sensibility. "A voice to die for", - The Times.

• $40/$35 • Doors open 6.30pm/Show starts 7.30pm
• Tank 5 • MA 15+

NANO STERN & MONTREAL GUITAR TRIO
FRIDAY 27 MARCH
WORLD SPOTLIGHT - DOUBLE BILL

Nano Stern's beautifully composed melodies and music tell intimate tales of the soul. An incredibly gifted performer, composer, arranger, storyteller and multi-instrumentalist, he has developed a unique and eclectic fusion of traditional Latin American and European folk music, along with modern rock and folk.

• $35/20 (ticket price includes Nano Stern & Montreal Guitar Trio
• Doors open 6.30pm Nano Stern starts 7.30pm sharp and Montreal Guitar starts 9.00pm • Tank 5 • PG

Montreal Guitar Trio. An unbeatable combination of energy, virtuosity, humour and spirit makes MG3 a truly demonic trio! The three guitarists-composers-vocalists travel around the world, electrifying audiences with their unique take on everything from jazz to film and world music. Their great inventiveness results in mixtures of music genres and styles