

Leave The Planning To Marian

The Hotel Cairns specialises in creating romantic weddings in a tropical haven. Whether its a gathering on a grand scale or just a small intimate celebration with friends and family, The Hotel Cairns has the flexibility to deliver the beautiful wedding you have always dreamed of. The Hotel Cairns wedding and events coordinator, Marian Baker's personal approach to coordinating large events, coupled with her enthusiasm makes her the ideal choice to help couples through their wedding. From the first meeting, Marian puts your mind at ease. Being part of the local family that owns and runs the hotel, Marian personally oversees every detail of your special day. Her business relies on your wedding day running flawlessly so you know nothing will be overlooked. The hotel's private tropical garden is the perfect place for your ceremony, while the elegantly decorated reception areas can accommodate up to 250 guests and suites are ideal for the bridal couple and visiting family. Take a short stroll from The Hotel Cairns and you will find yourself on the esplanade boardwalk, perfect for picturesque wedding photos. The catering is nothing short of first-class with the on-site restaurant, The Plantation, recently awarded best Cairns restaurant for the second year in a row by the Australian Culinary Federation, Northern Chapter. Overall, The Hotel Cairns offers the complete wedding package from the ceremony and reception to the romantic honeymoon suite. If you choose The Hotel Cairns for your wedding, you will feel any stress of the planning process just lift away, leaving you to enjoy the special day you become husband and wife.

The Hotel Cairns

Unique Style

Rydgcs Sabaya Resort, Port Douglas has been reborn after a multi-million dollar redevelopment. Set among lush tropical gardens with lily ponds throughout and a picturesque mountain backdrop, the resort offers a wedding ceremony and reception venue with a unique sense of style. Be it a small, intimate ceremony witnessed by family and friends among the resort's picturesque lily ponds and tropical gardens or a star-studded extravaganza for more than 200 people in the state-of-the-art, airconditioned grand ballroom, Rydgcs Sabaya Resort offers a selection of venues that are both comfortable and modern with the perfect tropical setting for your special day.

Rydgcs Sabaya Resort

Distinctive Visions

The Pullman Reef Hotel Casino's very own "director of romance", Sandy Downes, goes to extraordinary lengths to ensure all the expectations of her bridal couples are met. Sandy explains: "Creating your dream day should be a joyous and stress free journey, culminating in a most magical destination." To that end, Sandy and her attentive and professional team seek to develop a seamless and organised planning schedule overseeing every detail in collaboration with a respected and recognised collective of wedding service providers. Sandy knows that each couple is unique, with distinctive visions of what is to be their most memorable day. Her desire is to tailor every aspect of your day to suit your individual wishes from the cuisine and the wedding cake to table settings and ambient lighting. In such professional and dedicated hands, you can relax as Sandy helps you to fashion your very own happy ending.

Pullman Reef Hotel Casino

Special Affair

When it comes to setting up for a couple's special day, the team at Brothers is all about care and attention. The dedicated functions team ensures each wedding resembles effortless works of art. From the initial enquiry to the moment newlyweds exit the building, the team are on hand for support. There are two rooms available for weddings of all sizes from intimate affairs up to 50 people to large affairs of up to 500 guests. The club has a range of food and decoration packages to suit any budget and style.

Brothers Leagues Club