aquarius (January 20 – February 19)

Keep an eye on your valuables and do not offer accommodation to anyone during the next few weeks. Love relationships should be happier and most will meet a lot of new people.

pisces (February 20 – March 20)

You might find it difficult to put your finger on what is important during this period. Love is in the air and there shouldn't be too many restrictions to hold you back from doing what you want to do. Expect a very wild time if you accept all invitations on offer.

aries (March 21 – April 20)

People could be slightly confused by your actions so make sure they know exactly what you mean. Off the cuff travel could be very profitable in business and career matters, while some problems with paperwork could take a lot of your time.

taurus (April 21 – May 20)

Now is a great time to decide what you want to do in the future, however you could find yourself repeating past mistakes. Keep an eye out for some major moves in the pipeline, you might find an offer too good to refuse, but ensure you watch your spending as funds could be needed urgently somewhere else.

gemini (May 21 – June 21)

This month could bring temptations regarding your career affairs so make sure you know where you are heading, mixing business and personal celebrations will not go down well. If you do need advice get help from the experts.

cancer (June 22 – July 22)

You might have to probe a little to find out what is really going on at your place of work. People will push you for money, but it is wiser to consider your own interests first. Career opportunities may take you by surprise, while most of you will need to give more attention to their home and love affairs.

leo (July 23 – August 22)

Now is the time to finish any jobs that have been put off. Romance is alive and well and will be one of the highlights of the period but, be sure to examine your motives in selecting your future partner.

virgo (August 23 – September 23)

It's the perfect time for self-improvement and a new diet, but it's also a very confusing time where decisions could have far reaching consequences for your future. Be sure to check all information twice before making any definite moves there could be misunderstandings or communication breakdowns.

libra (September 24 – October 23)

Guard against making decisions in haste and study forms before signing, as there may be people willing to give you a helping hand but there could be strings attached. Money matters will be very much in your mind and something very different will take your interest.

scorpio (October 24 – November 22)

You might not get the support you have been waiting for but you will achieve your goals another way very soon. Luck will play a big part over the coming weeks and there are many ways to improve on your performance. Getting into arguments with superiors will be self-defeating and not worth the time and worry they will cause.

sagittarius (November 23 – December 20)

This period will bring big changes in many areas of your life, as well as slightly confusing times in your love affairs. Chances, choices, opportunities and people will be forthcoming. You will discover a lot of support from friends and loved ones.

capricorn (December 21 – January 19)

Any travel plans should come off a success and official matters will go well. Although you should be careful with money, now is the time to indulge in a little luxury. Be on the look out for a special celebration. Many could find the very thing that has been missing in their lives.

Your View Of Life

If you look at the western side of a hill you will have a different view from someone standing on the eastern side of the hill. Same hill, different view. It will look different again for someone standing on the top of the hill and looking down. Once again, same hill, different view and yet for someone looking at the hill from a long way away, it may not seem like much of a hill at all.

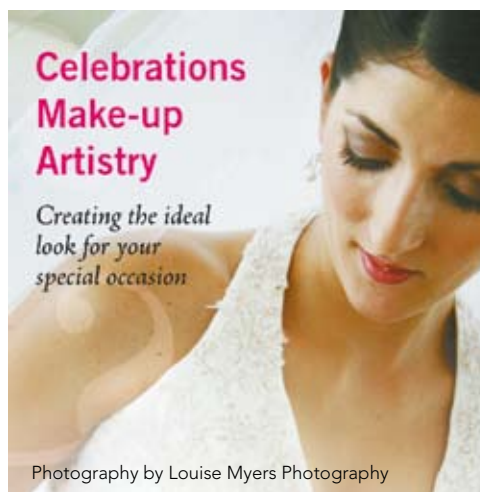

In all misunderstandings, arguments, or even wars between nations, all parties believe that they are doing the right thing from their point of view. The problems only arise because each has a different point of view. When we are in disagreement with someone else, our view of the situation is coloured by a myriad of our individual but unique experiences, thoughts, emotions and beliefs that we have spent years collecting. So too, our values, dreams and aspirations are quite different from others. No wonder we don't all see things the same way.

So at times over the course of our lives, we occasionally have disagreements with others. If we may have unintentionally hurt or wronged others, what is done is done. We can't turn back the clock, but it doesn't help anyone if it weighs too heavily on our heart. That only serves to diminish ourselves and if we lose esteem for ourselves we become all the more poor because of it. Ralph Waldo Emerson once observed that: "Most of the shadows of this life are caused by our standing in our own sunshine."

I recently read a fascinating account of how a Hawaiian psychologist cured a complete ward of criminally insane patients without ever seeing any of them. When asked to explain this, Dr Ihaleakala Hew Len explained that everything in your life, simply because it is in your life, is your responsibility. In a sense the entire world is your creation. When asked further how he healed this ward of patients, he explained "I just kept saying, 'I'm sorry' and 'I love you' over and over again."

Now there is food for thought.
